Terms & Conditions

Please read the following terms and conditions (“Terms and Conditions”) carefully before using this Web site (www.thamesct.com). You should review these terms and conditions regularly, as they may change at any time at our sole discretion.

Thames Financial Management (“Thames”) is an SEC registered investment adviser located in Norwich, CT. Thames has followed the current registration and/or notice filing requirements imposed upon registered investment advisers by those states in which Thames maintains clients. Thames may only transact business in those states in which it is registered or qualifies for an exemption or exclusion from registered requirements. A copy of Thames’s current disclosure statement (Form ADV Part 1A) containing Thames’s business operations, services, and fees, is available by accessing the SEC’s Investment Adviser Public Disclosure website. Thames will provide Form ADV Part 2A (Firm Brochure), Part 2B (Brochure Supplement) and Part 3 (Form CRS (Customer Relationship Summary)) to interested parties upon request.

This Site is published in the United States for residents of the United States. Thames is not soliciting business in international or state jurisdictions where it is not registered.

Nothing on the Site should be construed as a solicitation or offer, or recommendation to acquire or dispose of any investment or to engage in any other transaction. Thames does not render or offer to render personal investment advice or financial planning advice through its Web site. Thames’s specific advice is given only within the context of our contractual agreements with each client. The Site is limited to the dissemination of general information pertaining to its investment advisory and financial planning services. Advice may only be rendered after delivery of Form ADV Part 2A and Form CRS, the execution of an investment management agreement and/or financial planning agreement by the client and the advisor.

Privacy Policy

It is the policy of the Congress that each financial institution has an affirmative and continuing obligation to respect the privacy of its clients and to protect the security and confidentiality of those clients' nonpublic personal information. As providers of financial services, we have been and continue to be bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy.

Thames Financial Management does not sell or share personal information with any outside company for the purpose of marketing their products or services to you.

Types of Nonpublic Personal Information We Collect-

To conduct business and properly serve the financial needs of our clients, we collect relevant nonpublic personal information about you that is provided to us by you or obtained by us with your authorization. This is information that we are either allowed or required by law to obtain for conducting business, such as your name, address, Social Security number, assets, income, and similar information.

Parties to Whom We Disclose Information -

For current and former clients, we do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained during our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees, and in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to you. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of information being shared.

Protecting the Confidentiality and Security of Current and Former Clients' Information-

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your financial needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your nonpublic personal information, and to protect against any anticipated threats or hazards to the security or integrity of such records, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable laws, and our professional standards.

Please call us at 860-886-5108 if you have any questions, because your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality financial services are very important to us.
